Camp Betty

Betty is coming.....

It's a camp without tents, it's radical sex and politics in too many places to count. Get ready for Betty...

Melbourne, June 7 - June 11

Here's a little taste of what's planned....

Talk 'n' Do

Friday, Saturday and other times have your brain exploded and your hands busied with panels, workshops and skillsharing galore. Ideas you can dig your teeth into, for nerds & action kids but not just for uni-heads. Sex, gender, knitting, neoliberalism, beats, panic politics, sex work, flirting & radical action!

Playtime

Fun & games will be had all over. On Thursday night we've got a launch, trans readings and a riot-grrl night. Friday is bands galore & then queer films at Vagina Dentata. Saturday night is Upstart Alley's magnificent feast of performance and tunes. On Sunday continue the 50 year tradition of the Queen's Birthday picnic and finish up on Monday with a diy/zine fair & hangover brekky. Too much fun!

Proceed

Saturday afternoon come along to reinvent the parade & the protest in the Camp Betty procession. Hair, make-up, costumes & placards provided! And Sunday get your compass out for the Amazing (queer history) Race on the streets of Melbourne.

Sweaty Betty

Yup there'll be sweat for sure and partying galore... at Betty's big birthday bash. Music, performances and general debauchery. Sunday night!

AND ALSO: accessible spaces, daily meals, bike pool, and childcare if you need it. For more info check out www.campbetty.net or call 0434 867 228

Camp Betty is brought to you by folks who have been involved in: Bite, State of Emergency, Gender Schmender, A Space Outside, Q.U.E.E.R; & more!
