JUNE 7-11

queen's birthday weekend

www.campbetty.net

It's Betty's Birthday but that's no reason to let the mongrels get you down. It's time to remember what this great nation was built on – criminals, perverts and stolen land.

So poofers, sheilas, reffos, squatters, deviants, dole-bludgers and outsiders – your time is now. Get your arses to Melbourne for a weekend of radical sex and politics – Camp Betty style.

WHAT??

Over 5 days around the long weekend we want to see workshops and talkshops, but no sweatshops. Sex parties and dance parties, but no big 'p' Parties.

• organise your own events! We reckon it'd be hot to have film nights, gigs, sex sluttery, art shows, games, sports, zines, picnics or whatever the hell ya want. Tell us what you want to do and we'll hook you up with others who want the same, or find a slot for you on the calendar.

• get a workshop together! Baking, theory, history, DIY porn? It's anything goes, as long as it turns us on to radical politics and action.

WHERE??

A bunch of hot spots in Melbourne's inner suburbs.

HOW??

DIY – Do It Yourself. We want this weekend to be as open, decentralised, and as DIY as possible.

WHO??

You + a bunch of folk who want to fuck shit up and fuck up shit.
